

Summary of Amendments to the NTIP Manuals

Revised versions of the NTIP manuals can be found at <http://tpfr.edu.gov.on.ca/NTIP.htm>.

In reviewing the New Teacher Induction Program: Induction Elements Manual, 2009, school and system leaders should note changes in the following areas:

The NTIP Section 1.1	When discussing the induction elements in chapters 3 and 4, any reference to 'new teachers' will also apply to 'beginning long-term occasional teachers'. Please refer to 2.2.2 for the definition of the beginning long-term occasional teacher.
Other First-Year Teachers Section 2.2.2	Starting in 2009-10: - boards are to include their beginning long-term occasional (LTO) teachers in the induction elements of the NTIP; - boards may use NTIP funds to include full-time continuing education teachers in the induction elements of the NTIP. A beginning full-time continuing education teacher is defined as a certified teacher who is teaching two secondary credit courses per quad X four quads per year in a given school year in an adult learning day school. Please refer to this section for more information.
Second-Year Teachers Section 2.2.3	Starting in 2009-10, boards may use their NTIP funding to offer supports to second-year teachers. Please refer to this section for more information.
Reporting to the Ministry Section 5.1	a) A reminder that boards will submit the required NTIP data to the Ontario School Information System (OnSIS) in October of each year.
Funding Allocation Model and Eligible Expenses Section 6.2	Each district school board will be allocated a base amount. Each district school board, the Provincial Schools Authority, and each school authority will be allocated a proportional amount for the NTIP. The proportional amount will be calculated based on the number of teachers (FTE) reported on rows 0, 1, 2 of the board's Teacher Qualifications and Experience grid in the previous year. Please refer to this section for further information.

In reviewing the New Teacher Induction Program: Manual for Performance Appraisal of New Teachers, 2009, school and system leaders should note changes in the following areas:

Appendix A: Summative Report Form for New Teachers (Approved Form)	2. If the rating is Unsatisfactory, the principal shall follow the steps outlined in 10.2.2 within 15 school days of determining the rating is Unsatisfactory.
--	---